ORDERS TO BOY SCOUTS GOING TO GETTYSBURG

Each Lad Planning Trip Must Have Uniform, Canteen and Five Dollars.

TO REPORT THIS AFTERNOON

All Boy Scouts who are to go to Gettysburg for the fiftieth anniversary celebration of the battle must report at scout headquarters this afternoon at 3 o'clock with uniforms, a canteen, and $5 in money.

No Scout not provided with the money will be permitted to go to Gettysburg. This announcement was made by E. J. Martin, Scout Commander, last night.

Decision to send the boys to Gettysburg by railroad was reached after a conference of Scout officials last night, following inspection of some sixty boys who reported for examination at headquarters. It was suggested at inspection that the boys might go by trolley cars to Rockville, then "dick" to Frederick and proceed from there by trolley cars and by automobiles to Gettysburg.

This plan was deemed unwise. It was pointed out that the boys would arrive at the battlefield tired out after their long trip, more or less bedraggled by tramping through the mud, possibly wet from rain and otherwise not in fit condition for work on the battlefield in assisting and caring for the war veterans.

Boys must wear official uniforms. No military buttons or other insignia will be permitted. They may wear official scout badges, tenderfoot, first and second class badges, any merit badges and the like they may have, but no "frills," fancy hat bands or the like. They must have canteens.

Staves will be furnished. Camp equipment will also be furnished so that boys will not be required to have haversacks. They will leave Washington early Saturday morning for the battlefield.

Motorman Prostrated by Heat.
